Company:	Whitemud Ironworks Limited
Position:	Structural Steel Ironworker
Location:	Fraser Valley, BC

Whitemud Ironworks Limited is seeking highly skilled Structural Steel Ironworkers to complement our construction team based out of Fraser Valley, BC. This is an excellent opportunity for someone who wants to make a change from project-based work to a long-term career.

Who we are...

Whitemud Ironworks Limited is a fully integrated steel fabricator and erector that specializes in structural and miscellaneous steel projects in the commercial sector. We are recognized as an industry leader for our quality and scope of work. Due to our reputation, we have grown substantially over the past 20+ years. Today, Whitemud has established construction crews and three fabrication facilities totaling over 100,000 square feet!

What you will do...

You enjoy outdoor work that allows you to flex your muscles and get your hands dirty. You're an expert at reading and interpreting blueprint drawings, erecting/bolting/torqueing structural metalwork. You get excited about working at heights where you get a bird's eye view of the world. You take pride in assembling the structural frameworks of signature commercial buildings and small commercial projects from the ground up. You enjoy being involved in all stages of a project from unloading steel to final clean-up. You thrive in a fast paced environment and provide execution excellence in everything that you do.

Who we're looking for...

You have at least 2 years' experience in the Structural Steel Ironworker trade. We are looking for someone with a strong background in connecting, bolting and torqueing. That has experience in rigging and working with mobile cranes. Is able to work from man lifts and heights and can read blueprints and layout. That possess a valid driver's license, a vehicle, Fall Protection certification, AWP ticket and must be able to pass a pre-employment drug and alcohol test. You're an excellent team player and safety is your number one priority.

What we offer!

Whitemud Ironworks Limited offers a comprehensive compensation package and a supportive working atmosphere that affords everyone the potential for professional growth and personal development. The successful candidate will join a dedicated team active on commercial projects for a variety of public and private sector clients, striving to provide the best results for our clients.

Come and join us on a venture towards continued growth and success!
